Shepherding

Why Shepherd?

Pilgrimage community members are asked to shepherd a participant before, during and after the weekend to welcome them into the community by providing them the support they need.

The intent is for the Shepherd to make a good faith attempt to help the participant become genuinely connected to other Christians and help each other in their faith walk.

Shepherding Questions

Two of the most common questions potential shepherds ask are:

- ◆ Is it okay if I don't know the participant prior to my role as Shepherd?
- ◆ Can I serve as a Shepherd if I am staffing the weekend?

It is not necessary to know the participant that you Shepherd, but a prior relationship is helpful. While it is easier to anticipate and accommodate the needs of someone you know, shepherding someone you don't know is a way to make new friends in the body of Christ and share your experience.

Basics and Beyond...

Expectations of a Shepherd

When deciding to become a Shepherd, there are a few basic expectations that will help the participant prepare for the weekend, for life in the Fourth Day community and also for continued growth in their personal walk as a Christian.

These basic steps, plus some additional ideas, are given below in the three Pilgrimage phases:

Pre-weekend * During the weekend * Post-weekend

Note: Staff members can Shepherd but it is not always ideal because of the many tasks at hand. Talk with your Shepherding Mentor if you feel led to do both.

All Shepherds are expected to perform the basics outlined in the following booklet. Going beyond the basics is encouraged, but only if you feel led.
